

FY2015 President's Budget Request

STEM Education Investments

Overview

The FY15 President's Budget proposes a fresh reorganization of Federal STEM education programs to enable more strategic investment in STEM education and more critical evaluation of outcomes. This proposal reduces fragmentation of STEM education programs across Government, and focuses on efforts around the five key areas identified by the Federal STEM Education 5-Year Strategic Plan: K-12 instruction; undergraduate education; graduate education; broadening participation in STEM education and careers by women and minorities traditionally underrepresented in these fields; and education activities that typically take place outside the classroom.

The President's 2015 Budget maintains a strong commitment to STEM education and supports the core principles of the 2014 Budget proposal and the goals of the Five-Year Strategic Plan, while making important changes that reflect valuable input from the STEM education community. This means:

- The Administration is not requesting a transfer of funding between agencies. As a result, some agencies have had a portion of their STEM education funds partially restored compared to the 2014 Budget proposal. This means, for example, that funding is provided to NASA, NIH, and the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration to ensure that the K-12 STEM education community can take advantage of these agencies' respective areas of expertise.
- Agencies will focus on internal consolidations and eliminations, while funding their most effective programs. As a result, the 2015 Budget continues to reduce fragmentation, building on the substantial number of internal consolidations and eliminations that agencies began implementing in 2013 and 2014.
- Agencies will coordinate their STEM education investments through implementation of the Federal STEM Education Five-Year Strategic Plan, looking for opportunities to build the evidence base, share what works, and leverage each other's expertise and resources. Federal agencies, working together through the Committee on STEM Education (CoSTEM), have convened working groups focused on each of the five priority areas identified in the Five-Year Strategic Plan, and are working to develop joint pilot projects, joint administration of programs, and common data-collection strategies. A recent example is NASA's partnership with Department of Education's 21st Century Learning Centers program, and the Department of Education's and NSF's common guidelines for education research.
- To support these and related activities, the Budget provides tangible support for the work agencies are doing to implement the Five-Year Strategic Plan, with a focus on building and using evidence-based practices and developing new interagency models for leveraging assets and expertise.
